As a unique program to excite and ignite the men in your church, Wingman Men's Ministry is not a specific Bible Study. Any form or study can be used in conjunction with the Wingman Men's Ministry structure. This concept will allow the men of your church to connect together in a more relaxed social setting, allowing them to get to know other men on a manly level, allowing them to identify with the needs, struggles, hurts, habits and issues of other men while enjoying food and time together and learning to be "The man God wants them to be." The men of your church will relate to this theme and concept in a huge way!
