Then Peter came up and said to him, Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times? Jesus said to him, I do not say to you seven times, but seventy-seven times.

Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven.

Bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.

Whoever covers an offense seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates close friends.

In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love to all who call upon you.
